DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Applicant's election without traverse of species C in the reply filed on 4/28/05 is acknowledged.
2. Claim 2 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b) as being drawn to a nonelected species, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Election was made without traverse in the reply filed on 4/28/05.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 10-13 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 10 recites "the pole piece" numerous times. It is unclear if more than one piece is being claimed. Numerals should not be used to distinguish between different elements. Claim 11 recites first and second air gaps twice but appears to refer to different gaps based on the numerals.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3683

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claims 1 and 3-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ingraham et al (U. S. Patent no. 5) in view of Ricouard et al (U. S. Patent no. 4,204,158).

Ingraham discloses a master cylinder with hall sensors to detect position of the piston in a master cylinder (figures 8-11). Ingraham does not disclose the specifics of the hall sensors. Ricouard teaches a hall sensor apparatus with three poles(11,12,13), a magnet (10), sensor(18), that uses two magnetic circuits to detect motion (magnetic circuit one shown in figure 6, magnetic circuit two shown in figure 7). It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use the sensor as taught by Ricouard et al in the device of Ingraham et al in order to accurately detect the motion of the piston as well as detect motion in different areas (the use of spaced apart poles allows the sensor to determine which pole is part of the active magnetic circuit and thus relative position).

Regarding claim 7, Ingraham, as modified, does not disclose the use of a reed switch as the sensor. Reed switches are well known and It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to use a reed switch as the sensor in the device of Ingraham, as modified, as such is merely a design choice.
